THE HURT LOCKER

Directed by Kathryn Bigelow, and written by journalist and screenwriter Mark Boal, who was embedded with a special bomb unit in Iraq, THE HURT LOCKER is a riveting, suspenseful tale of courage under fire, seen through the eyes of a three-man team tasked with one of the world's most dangerous jobs: disarming bombs in the midst of urban combat in Baghdad. When a mercurial commander (Jeremy Renner) takes over the team, he surprises his two forceful subordinates (Anthony Mackie and Brian Geraghty) by thrusting them into a dangerous game of cat and mouse with enemy snipers and bombers. A thrillingly realistic story of survival and the psychology of risk and danger, THE HURT LOCKER is set against the new face of 21st century counter-insurgency warfare with a visual and emotional intensity that transports audiences to Iraq's dizzying, 24-hour turmoil. The film is both a saga of contemporary heroism and a probing, layered meditation on the soul-numbing rigors and potent allure of the modern battlefield.
